Cvijanović welcomes BiH's EU candidate status – SRNA

 December 16, 2022

BiH Presidency Chairperson Željka Cvijanović said that BiH's candidate status for EU membership is good news for BiH and for the citizens of Republika Srpska and the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

She believes that candidate status is an additional obligation for all authorities within BiH with certain coordinated movements and meeting obligations that belong to certain levels of government according to their constitutional competences.

“It will certainly be one of the references when it comes to the agreement on the formation of the government at the BiH level. Today, the agreement on the formation of the government at the BiH level and the candidate status coincide, there is some symbolism in it, because both can be life-changing for our citizens”, Cvijanović emphasized.
